

Caring For Our Community

Paekakariki Community Trust and 'The Calendar Girls' (a group of keen locals) are creating a calendar to fundraise for much needed renovations to St Peter's Hall - a building at the heart of the Paekakariki community

'The Calendar Girls' (and honorary members) say the 2010 calendar, to be published next month, has created some fantastic community spirit.

The Calendar Girls Fundraisers Extraordinaire

"We've got some awesome talent round here".

Rachel Benefield (Ms October) says she contributed this sketch of the old Paekakariki Hotel to the calendar because St Peter's hall is one of Paekakariki's treasures. "I've had so many great times there," she says. "The pub was an iconic building so it's like one icon is trying to save another." Other contributing artists include Bride Coe, Alan Wehipeihana, Brendan Nolan, and Phil Simmonds.

St Peter's hall is home to local market days, club meetings, music and theatre events, weddings, and the local community library. Mayor Jenny Rowan even had her election party there.
